

*Sacred Singleness:
The Set-Apart Girl's Guide to Purpose and Fulfillment*

By Leslie Ludy

Chapter 3: Finding Romantic Fulfillment

Discussion Questions:

1. Leslie tells the stories of two different types of single women – one who is embittered and one who is radiant (p. 45-46). Which type of single woman are you? How do your thoughts and behaviors reflect her?
2. What would a single life completely fulfilled in Christ look like to you? What qualities would you possess? What behaviors would you display? What thoughts would you have?
3. What are the benefits of making Jesus your first love before getting married?
4. Read Colossians 3:3. Do you feel like the part of you that wants to cling to a husband is dead? Pray that God helps you to realize this truth.
5. Have you ever considered marriage and men as being idols to you?

This Week's Prayer:

Lord Jesus, I do not want to be a woman embittered by singleness. I want to experience the abundant life that you have promised me now. I know it is possible. Please continue to search my heart. Help me to fully accept your truths and make them a part of who I am. Help me to guard my heart from making marriage and men idols. Thank you, Jesus, for burying my tendency to look for you in men. I now want to move forward in making you my one and only.
